

About the Author

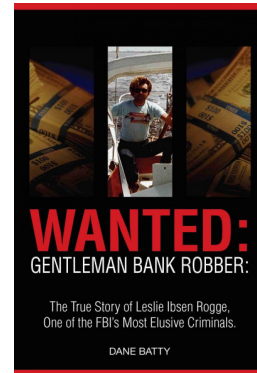

What were at first just exciting letters from his uncle became much more than that as Dane Batty slowly discovered they were chronicling his uncle Leslie Rogge's extraordinary adventures as a man who would eventually become one of the FBI's Top Ten Most Wanted Fugitives.

Through his skills as a technical writer, extensive research and in-depth interviews, Dane conveys the everyday drama of the highs and lows of Rogge's robberies, relationships and life on the run.

Dane earned his MBA from George Fox University and works as a writer and designer. He enjoys his own adventure filled life in Oregon with his family and weekend motocross racing action.

He continues to correspond with his uncle who now resides in the United States Penitentiary in Beaumont, Texas.

Dane is building his publishing company, Nish Publishing, and is currently looking for new authors.
